

COMMUNITY LEADER OF THE YEAR

THE BLOCKIES.

2025 Australian Blockchain Awards

Nomination Questions

This Community Leader of the Year award is a tribute to the dedicated community builders who have passionately worked towards knitting a cohesive and thriving Australian blockchain community. It recognises those individuals who, through their tireless efforts, have nurtured connections, fostered collaboration, and created spaces for knowledge sharing and growth. These leaders have not only brought individuals and groups together but have also been pivotal in shaping an inclusive and engaged blockchain ecosystem in Australia.

Eligibility

- This is an individual award.
- Individual entrants must be over the age of 18.
- Individual entrants must be Australian citizens or residents.
- Nominees should have actively contributed to the community by fostering growth, championing education, and enhancing collaboration among its members.

Community Name, Goal and Purpose:

What is the name, goal and purpose of your blockchain community initiatives? (Max 100 words)

Outreach and Network:

Describe your outreach or community-building activities. Include a statement on who you have targeted and how many people are now in your network. (Max 300 words)

Impact and Achievements:

Describe the impact of your community-building activities, with specific reference to achievements in Education, Networking and Collaboration. (Max 300 words)

Industry Collaboration:

Describe your efforts in fostering collaborations or partnerships within the blockchain industry, and how these have fortified the ecosystem. (Max 200 words)

Contribution to the Blockchain Community:

Describe how you have contributed to the advancement of the overall blockchain community in Australia. (Max 150 words)

Uploads:

Headshot: Please upload a clear and professional headshot.

50-Word Bio: Offer a succinct bio spotlighting your notable achievements.

Additional Documentation: Upload any pertinent documents, speeches, articles, or proofs that can bolster your nomination.